

KI Refresh body and soul with tidal flat shellfish gathering & onsen ROUTE

An activity to dig for shells at low tide and get a feel for the real riches of Uchibo's seas. Relax in an observatory bath overlooking the ocean after harvesting its bounties.

Best season

(ROUTE)

No reservations required for highway bus. There are days on which it is not possible to shell-gather even during the season due to tidal cycles, so please confirm. Ryugujo Spa Hotel Mikazuki is a large-scale facility with a popular heated swimming pool which can be used throughout the year. Swimwear can also be hired.

K1-1 Ryugujo Spa Hotel Mikazuki

A hot spring facility from which Tokyo Bay, or on clear days Mt. Fuji, can be viewed. Enjoy the 70 kinds of spa facilities, and unusual baths.

〒1 Kitahama-cho, Kisarazu ☎0438-41-8111
 ☒10:00-23:00 ☒Open year-round ☒1,500 yen bef. tax (Sat., Sun., public holidays 2,000 yen), 1,300 yen after 18:00, 2,300 yen in summer period (Sat., Sun., public holidays 2,600 yen) ☒Available

K1-2 Kaneda beach coastal shellfish gathering

Shellfish gathering refers to an activity to "hunt for shells on the tidal flats." You can collect common orient clams and Manila clams, among other shellfish which have grown in the rich Uchibo seas.

〒1 Kitahama-cho, Kisarazu ☎0438-22-7711 ☒From April to mid-July ☒Depends on tidal cycles ☒Available

