

NI Travel to a castle town on two local trains ROUTE

Look out over the Boso scenery from the recreated castle tower and follow along with the local history of Uchibo's retro streets.

Best season

ROUTE

NI-1 Kominato Railway

Kazusa-Nakano Sta.

NI-2 Isumi Railway

Otaki Sta.

NI-3 Otaki Castle Branch, Natural History Museum and Institute, Chiba

NI-4 Watanabe Family Residence

NI-5 Akinai Trading Archive

NI-6 Kurasho restaurant

NI-7 Tsuchiya, Shinmachi Store

NI-8 Isumi-jinja Shrine

A journey which begins from Uchibo's Goi. While there are frequent trains operated to Goi, there are not many local lines from there, so you should carefully confirm the timetable in advance. Generally moving about is on foot so wear comfortable shoes.

NI-1 Kominato Railway

An extremely picturesque local line with retro carriages and idyllic scenery. Frequently appears as TV and film location.

☎0436-23-5584 📍Goi Station - Yoro-Keikoku Station, 11 return journeys Sat, Sun, and public holidays (3 return journeys are "Trolley trains"), 5 return journeys to Kazusa-Nakano Station 📄Boarding ticket 500 yen + Train fare. One-day train pass 1800 yen 📄Available

NI-2 Isumi Railway

This is a local line operated on a single track but is nevertheless famous for holding onboard events such as journeys on which you can enjoy full course meals.

☎0470-82-2161 📄Approx. 15 return journeys operated on weekdays. Around one train per hour during daytime. 📄One-day train pass 1000 yen 📄Available

NI-3 Otaki Castle Branch, Natural History Museum and Institute, Chiba

A museum in which living tools and arms from medieval and early modern times from the local area are housed in a building which recreates an ancient castle.

☎481 Otaki, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-82-3007 📄9:00-16:30 (Last admission 16:00) 📄Mon., if holiday, closed on day after 📄200 yen, separate charge for planned exhibitions 📄Available

NI-4 Watanabe Family Residence

A private residence and nationally-designated Important Cultural Property, built in 1849. Watanabe family, the household, was a central merchant in the local economy.

☎126 Kubo, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-80-1146 📄Freely tour site (outside only) 📄Open year-round 📄Free

NI-5 Akinai Trading Archive

A historical archive with exhibition rooms made from a storehouse which recreates the lifestyles of the Edo period. 1st floor is a recreation of merchant house, 2nd floor is an exhibition of workspace for employees.

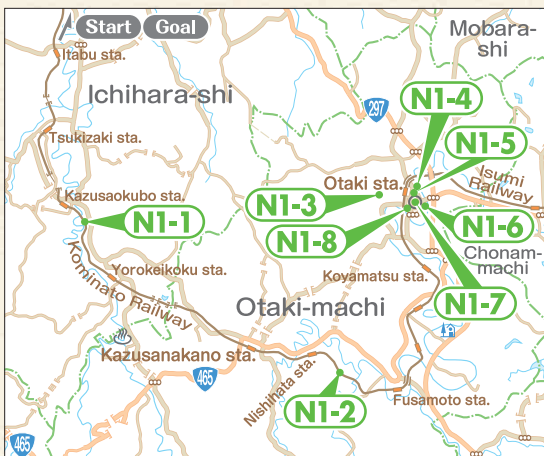

☎153-1 Kubo, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-80-1146 📄9:00-17:00 (to 16:00 Nov.-Feb.) 📄Open year-round 📄Free

NI-6 Kurasho restaurant

Restaurant which prepares food with ingredients and seasoning with meticulous attention to natural cultivation, natural Aspergillus molds, and so on, using zero animal food products.

☎32 Sakuradaji, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-82-4949 📄11:30-14:30, 15:30 onward (evening reservation system) 📄Mon. nights, Tues. Mon./Tues. from Jan. - March 📄Available

NI-7 Tsuchiya, Shinmachi Store

Known for its excellent local confections "Monaka-jumanguku." Monaka is sweets consisting of adzuki beans wrapped in glutinous mochi rice skin.

☎83 Shinmachi, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-82-5656 📄9:00-17:30 📄Wed.

NI-8 Isumi-jinja Shrine

A shrine where successive generations of the heads of Otaki Castle worshipped. The beautiful sanctuary constructed at the late Edo period is a must-see.

☎63-12 Shinmachi, Otaki-machi, Isumi-gun ☎0470-80-1146 📄Freely tour site 📄Open year-round 📄Free 📄Available