Chiba Official Tourism Website
“Chiba” is located within the Tokyo metropolitan area and has mild climate and many sightseeing spots. Surrounded by sea and rivers on all four sides, Chiba is blessed with the nature full of water and greenery.

Under the influence of the warm current (Kuroshio Current) that flows offshore, the land is seldom frosted even in winter. The precipitation is heavy in summer and light in winter.

Its eastern part faces the Pacific Ocean and western part faces Tokyo Bay. Besides, its northwestern part borders on Tokyo and Saitama Prefecture, and northern part borders on Ibaraki Prefecture.

With a total area of 5,156.64 sq km, Chiba is composed of Boso Kyuryo (hills) with a series of 200 to 300-meter-high mountains, comparatively flat Shimosa Plateau, a far-reaching Tone River basin, and the coast of Kujukuri. The total length of coastline of Chiba Prefecture is about 530.5 km, showing various sceneries.

Matsuri

Narita Gion Festival

“Narita Gion Festival”, which marks the coming of Summer, has been held along with “Naritasan Gion-E”, the festival of “Okuno-In Dainichi Buddha (a bliss body of Buddha)” of the main figure of Naritasan Shinshoji Temple. It boasts a history of 300 years and this majestic summer festival in Narita attracts as many as 450,000 people every year when the beautiful and traditional 10 floats and stalls are gathered and shown. The sight of the participants pull the floats up a slope of Omote-sando (a front approach) is spectacular. After dark, those floats are illuminated.

Grand Festival of Sawara

Grand Festival of Sawara (“Sawara-no-dashi Matsuri”) has a history of about 300 years and this is one of the three greatest float festivals in the Kanto Area. It’s also designated as a significant, intangible folk cultural asset of Japan. When you see the sight of over 10 lavish and magnificent floats parade through the town of Ko-Edo (small Edo), passing right in front of houses with “Sawara-Bayashi”, one of the three major festive music in Japan blared in the town, you are sure to be reminded of the scene of the Edo Period. Gion Festival of Yasaka Shrine in Honjuku, the east side of the Onogawa River is held in July, while the fall festival of Suwa Shrine in Niijuku, the west side of the river is held in October.

Ohara Hadaka Matsuri

This is a grandiose festival which is held for two days in the end of September. The 18 “mikoshi” (portable shrines) are shown, representing three districts of Ohara, Tokai and Namihana. On the first day comes the climax when about a dozen of the shrines are carried into the sea at a time and washed by bearers. They valiantly and gallantly carry and throw mikoshi into the sea. On the second day, the festival is rounded out with the ceremony called “O-Wakare Shiki”, where the participants gather together in Ohara elementary school at the signal of a firework after dark and hoist the mikoshi high into the air, feeling sorry for the end of the festival. The town is filled with passion and gentleness of men of the sea.

Mt. Nokogiriyama is a 329.4-meter-high mountain, which constitutes a part of Bosokyuryo Hills. The mountain consists of tuff that was suitable for construction and it used to be a quarry from the Edo Period. The shape of the exposed mountain surface took on a saw-toothed shape, giving it a name of “Nokogiri”, which means “saw.” The view from “Jigoku-nozoki”, which is situated near the top of the mountain is both beautiful and thrilling. This place is very unique in Japan in that the slope on the south side of the mountain is the temple grounds. The temple, Nihonji was built by the Buddhist monk called Gyoki at the behest of Emperor Shomu about 1,300 years ago. You can visit the largest Buddha statue carved on a rock face with a height of 31 meters, Hyakushaku-Kannon statue, which might remind you of the Bamiyan Buddha and the 1,500 stone figures of Arhats.

Nokogiriyama Ropeway

This is the only ropeway in Chiba Prefecture, which is located in Mt. Nokogiriyama, a part of Minami Boso Quasi-National Park. The mountaintop station sits on the cliff that used to be a quarry. You can overlook Mt. Fuji, TOKYO SKYTREE and the whole of Tokyo Bay from there.

Specialty and Food of Chiba

Boshu-Uchiwa (fan)
Chiba’s Boshu-Unchiwa is considered as one of the three major fans along with Kyoto’s Kyo-Uchiwa and Kagawa’s Marugame-Uchiwa. Boshu (southern part of Chiba) is famous for bamboo, a prime ingredient of fan and all 21 processes are done by hand. You can sense the craftsmanship from the works.

Peanut
There are some products that Chiba Prefecture produces the most in the country. However, peanut is the most well-known products among other things. It is made with great care by designated farmers.

Sake
Chiba is blessed with natural resources, which produce pure water and good rice. Junmaishu, made from the rice and very delicately aged, deserves the title of very deliciousness of Chiba.

Loquat Jelly
Chiba is one of the best producers of loquat in Japan. Thanks to the mild climate all the year around, the southern part of Chiba Prefecture produces renowned “Boshu Biwa (loquat)” that boasts 250 years of history and rich sweetness. Please enjoy this palatable fruit in jelly.

Soy sauce
Chiba is the largest producer of soy sauce in the nation. Of all the places, with an abundance of water, Choshi City and Noda City make the brand-name soy sauce. Please enjoy this product of Chiba which mostly or partly flavors Japanese and world cuisines.
